The Land We Share

A love affair told in hunting stories

Steve Meyer

Join us at Kenai National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center in Soldotna for an evening with the authors of The Land We Share, the 2024 National Publication of the Year by the Public Lands Alliance. The authors of The Land We Share, Steve Meyer and Christine Cunningham, will take you on a visual journey through the mountains and glacial valleys of Alaska. Along the way, they will discuss how ethical hunting supports and connects them and many others to the public lands, people, and wildlife of America.
